

Visiting Author Dina Nasr-Heerema

On Saturday December 11th from 10:30 am-11:30 am, author Dina Nasr-Heerema will be coming to the Totowa Public Library to read her new book entitled Geraldina and the Saddest Day. Her new children's book helps the children understand that the sadness that comes with loss gets easier because the memories shared last forever.

A book talk and book signing will follow.

Dina Nasr-Heerema; author of A Twist of Fate, I Hope, and Geraldina and the New Kid, understands how powerful and captivating a story can be to children. She is looking forward to sharing that with her audience!

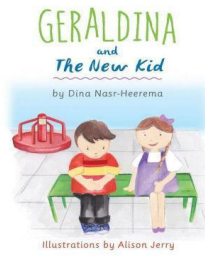

Dina lives in Totowa, New Jersey with her husband Rich and their precious daughter Jewel. As an elementary school teacher and a mother, she is inspired by children every day, especially by her amazing daughter.

Visit her website at www.hopeandfate.com

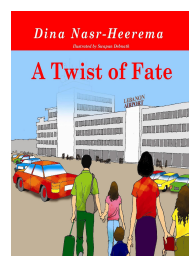

*The following books will be available for purchase and personalization.
With the holidays coming up, they make the perfect gift!*

Price $12

Price $12

Price $12

Price $16

Cash ONLY please